AWARDS:

New this year - Outstanding Paper Award

- To be eligible for this award, you must submit a complete paper (not an abstract).
- The winner of the Outstanding Paper Award will have their paper considered for publication in the Journal of Applied Behavioral Science. Please go to <https://us.sagepub.com/en-us/nam/the-journal-of-applied-behavioral-science/journal200967> to review this journal's aims and scope.
- For publication consideration in JABS:
 - The paper must have a team science focus.
 - The paper can be a case study, a theoretical model, or a qualitative or empirical study.
 - The paper must emphasize planned, unplanned, or evolutionary change involving team science impacting groups, organizations, or system-level dynamics.

All abstracts submitted through the general submission process will be considered for the InSciTS Meritorious Contribution Award. Poster and oral presentation abstracts will be nominated by the SciTS Abstract Reviewers and judged by the SciTS Awards Committee based on originality and significance.

SUBMISSION OPTIONS:

Individual Presentation

Paper Presentations

Paper presentations provide authors the opportunity to present original work related to conference topics.

- Oral paper presentations will have 15-minute time slots and be clustered by theme into sessions. Each session will include three individual presentations and time for questions from the audience.
- Extended abstract: Submissions should utilize the Abstract Template. Papers submitted in this category may represent original empirical research, theoretical development, reviews, or critiques.
- Complete paper: Submissions should submit a 50-word abstract AND a complete paper up to 35 pages long (references, tables and figures are not included in the page limit). Submissions to this category will be considered for the Outstanding Paper Award and for publication in the Journal of Applied Behavioral Science.

Lightning Round Presentations

Lightning round presentations provide authors the opportunity to share their work in brief oral presentations.

- Each presentation is limited to 10 minutes, followed by a five-minute question-and-answer period.
- The Program Committee will thematically group submissions for the lightning round session.

Poster Presentations

Our 90-minute poster session provides an interactive forum for authors to discuss their work.

- Submissions may represent original empirical research, theoretical development, or reviews.
- Poster submissions should use the Abstract Template format and should note that the word limit for posters are 500 words.
- All individual submissions will be considered for poster presentation if not accepted for their original submission type.

Panel Presentation

Panel presentations provide authors the option to organize a panel comprising three related presentations.

- Panel presentation sessions will be 90 minutes long, with 45 minutes for the presentation and 45 minutes for discussion.
- A panel proposal should use the Abstract Template format and must include an abstract summarizing the overall theme of the panel, as well as individual abstracts for each presentation included in the panel. Panel presentations that bring together experts for interactive discussion should describe questions that will be addressed by the panel, list any underlying issues to be discussed, and include bios for each of the panelists.

ADDITIONAL SUBMISSION NOTES:

The selection committee reserves the right to propose alternative presentation formats as the scope of the final programs requires.

PROGRAM CO-CHAIRS:

Stephen Crowley, PhD, Boise State University, stephencrowley@boisestate.edu

Deborah DiazGranados, PhD, Virginia Commonwealth University, diazgranados@vcu.edu

More information about abstract submission, conference registration, awards, and travel and lodging is available on the conference website or by reaching out to the conference planning team at SciTS.2018@utmb.edu.
